

Zurich Wealth Manager Nabs Credit Suisse Team

Tuesday, 13 December 2022 08:16

An independent Swiss wealth manager succeeded in attracting three former Credit Suisse bankers.

Zurich-based independent wealth manager VT Wealth Management hired an experienced three-person team to expand its business in the Gulf region, East Africa, and Pakistan and Business with Indians and Pakistanis Abroad (NRI/NRP), according to a statement issued by the company on Tuesday.

They are Arsalaan Bessarar-Shirazi, Daniel Rost, and Nicolas Khoury, all having previously worked for Credit Suisse, in some cases for many years. As indicated by their LinkedIn profiles, they made the switch to their new employer over the summer which marked the start of the employee exodus at the bank which has accelerated since then.

Middle East Expansion

Zurich Wealth Manager Nabs Credit Suisse Team

Tuesday, 13 December 2022 08:16

The team is an asset to VT Wealth Management and will help us further expand our existing activities in the Middle East, East Africa, Pakistan, NRI/NRP, and the UK, said Sacha Fedier, co-owner, and CEO of VT Wealth Management said in welcoming the team.